Eclectic: Objects of Conflict is Sasan Nasernia's first solo show at J+A Gallery. Inspired by the on-going human history of conflict and communication, the show features paintings, mixed media and collage works.

Nasernia's art draws inspiration from the rich regional history. He translates this history into familiar concepts and aesthetics with traditional patterns and shapes. Using calligraphy and arabesque styles, he combines the two in his very own signature style with common contemporary and historic symbols along with pictograms of conflict.

As he states it: "War is never only fought with weapons, but is more importantly always a conflict of ideas and words." All of Nasernia's striking pop-art calligraphies and graphically superior designs have a very distinct thought provoking sub-tone - that conflict has been a part of every culture since time immemorial.

Today the conflicts are influenced by industrial and technological advancement. The dictum "War of Ideas" has been given a whole new twist with the advent of tanks, warplanes, machine guns and weapons of mass destruction. Nasernia's creations are innocent, clear and aesthetically convincing pieces of art that deliver ample food for thought.

J+A Gallery is proud to have this bold and meticulous artist exhibiting his work in their gallery. The industrial and raw aura of J+A Gallery is the perfect background for Sasan Nasernias art.

About the artist

Born in 1974 in Tehran, Nasernia is one of the modern calligraphy painters that have emerged in this field.

As a graphic artist, and like many of his peers, he started with digital typography at Azad Art University Tehran, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in graphic design and fine art. During the course of these years he developed a style that paid acute attention to form associated with modern typography.

Later he developed his own signature expression - deformation of letters and intersection between graphic design, calligraphy and painting. Currently he works mainly on large sized acrylic paintings. He has had numerous solo and group shows in Tehran and Dubai. At present he lives and works in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

Show time from 27th January to 15th February, from 11 am to 7 pm daily except Friday.
